

More Landmarks of Success

Aside from a 15-year award-winning streak in GFOA annals and a 50-year tradition in accurate revenue forecasting, the Maryland State Comptroller's Office celebrates a host of other achievements among its co-workers and operations, including the following milestones:

Gloria Clark (left) and Rochell Thomas of the State Comptroller's Office Central Payroll Bureau verify payroll records received from state agencies - a vital step in a payroll deadline process unblemished since 1954. Photo: Mike Walsh.

stones:

Longest serving business tax collector. Dotty Morawski in the Compliance Division began her career as a collector in the Comptroller's Office when she joined the former Retail Sales Tax Division on January 7, 1959.

Longest serving division director. George H. Spriggs, Jr., director of the Revenue Administration Division, was appointed director of the former Income Tax Division on May 13, 1973.

Longest serving co-worker. Christine Samaras in the Compliance Division first joined the Comptroller's Office on February 1, 1954.

Longest record in perfect attendance. Warren Foxwell in the Data Processing Division has accumulated 27 years of perfect attendance.

Most enduring agency record. The Central Payroll Bureau has never missed a state payroll since the function began in 1954. That's more than 900 paydays.

Longest serving statewide elected official in Maryland history. State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein. As most Marylanders know, he was first elected in 1958 and has been re-elected ever since. ⚙