

crisis intervention center came these words: "Recently I had the opportunity to meet one of the individuals who has been preparing meals for our clients...she is a warm, caring individual like many of you who take the time and effort."

"We are truly grateful for your support...you are helping us keep on reaching out to our less fortunate neighbors..."