

- of 1864, 167, 168; elective system retained, 1864, 169; no perceptible change in character of judges due to, 195, 196, 197.
- EMORY, Thomas, General, 119.
- ERROR, writ of (See Writs).
- EXAMINATIONS (See Bar Examinations).
- EXCEPTIONS, Bills of, 35, 190.
- EXECUTION, not to be suspended by appeal to Privy Council, 1694, 22; suspended on appeal to Privy Council on giving security, 1726-1727, 43; security to suspend on appeal to Privy Council to be filed in 12 months, 43.
- EXPENSE OF JUDICIAL SYSTEM, 146, 148.
- FEEs, schedule of, of Clerk of Ct. of Appeals, c. 1700 (?), 29; attorneys', for conducting cases in Ct. of Appeals, 1715, 42; of witnesses, mileage, 1788, 94.
- FORMS, writ of error, 36; assignment of errors, 37-39; sci. fa. ad audiendum errores, 39-40; joinder in error—"In nullo est erratum," 40-41; judgment, 33.
- FREEDOM, petition for, 18, 19, 75, 132.
- FRICK, William, Judge, 152.
- GALE, Levin, 184.
- GANTT, John Mackall, Judge, 107, 108.
- GENERAL COURT, established 1776, as successor to Provincial Ct., 59-60; qualification and number of judges of, 60; to sit on Western and Eastern Shores, 60; location of, in Annapolis, 71; activities continued despite Revolutionary War, 73; great court of the state, 88, 89; abolition of, 91-97; original jurisdiction of, transferred to county courts, 96; appellate jurisdiction of, transferred to Ct. of Appeals, 96, 97.
- GEOGRAPHICAL DISTRIBUTION OF JUDGES, amendment of 1805, 96; four districts, Constitution of 1851, 150; debated, Convention of 1864, 167; adopted, Constitution of 1864, five districts, 170; adopted, Constitution of 1867, eight circuits, 176.
- GERRARD, Thomas, 16.
- GILL, Richard W., 112, 154, 156. (See also Harris & Gill and Gill's Reports.)
- GILL'S REPORTS, 157, 163.
- GOLDSBOROUGH, Charles, 45.
- GOLDSBOROUGH, Brice John, Judge, 158, 171, 172, 173.
- GOLDSBOROUGH, Henry H., 167.
- GOLDSBOROUGH, Robert, 45, 49.
- GOVERNOR, Colonial, judicial powers, 3; chancellor, 4, 5; Ct. of Appeals to function in absence of, 42; control over tenure of office of judges, 55. (See also Governor and Council.)
- GOVERNOR AND COUNCIL, Chief Justice and associate justices of Provincial Ct., 3; constituted Ct. of Appeals, 3; Provincial Court, to 1692, 3, 4; first writ of error, Ct. of Appeals, 1664, 5, 6; few appealed cases, 1666-1678, 6; identical personnel with Provincial Ct., 6, 24, 54-55; suspension of appeals to, 1681-1694, 7, 8; non-professional judges, 9, 12, 13, 14, 15; names of body when sitting as appellate court, 3, 33-34; action of, as court authorized in absence of Governor and President, 42; members hearing case in Provincial Ct. not sitting in Ct. of Appeals, 54-55; last session of, as Ct. of Appeals, 1776, 56-57; council continued after Revolution, 58; power to appoint judges after Revolution, 60; council abolished, 1836, 147.
- GOWNS, quaere as to use by colonial judges, 52; quaere as to use shortly after Revolution, 86; again adopted by Ct. of Appeals, 1914, 188.
- GRASON, Richard, Judge, 178, 179.
- GWYNN, Charles J. M., 160.
- HALL, John, 47.
- HAMMOND, John, 45, 49.