

be sufficient in the advertisement of the list of delinquent tax-payers to designate the quantity of land to be sold from the property described as per plat and description to be exhibited at the time of sale, and in case of sale the registrar shall file the said plat and description with his report of sale.

SEC. 66. The said registrar shall within thirty days after the close of such sale make a full report thereof to the Circuit Court for Howard County, setting forth his proceedings in the premises in detail, and showing to whom and at what price such several parcels were respectively sold, the amount of tax and interest accrued, the pro rata of costs of advertising such sale, and all other expenses and the surplus fund in each instance; with such report he shall file a copy of the printed list and notice of sale. The said Court shall examine the said proceedings, and if the same appear to be regular and the provisions of law in relation thereto have been complied with, shall order notice to be given by advertisement, warning all persons interested in the property sold to be and appear in said Court by a certain day to be named in said order, to show cause, if any they have, why said sale should not be ratified and confirmed; and after hearing the objection, if any, the Court in its discretion shall in one order ratify and confirm all sales so made and then entitled to be ratified, and confirmed, and the purchaser or purchasers thereof shall on payment of the purchase money, have a good title to the property sold; but if in judgment of the Court good cause be shown against the ratification of the sale of any parcel of land or other property so sold, the said sale shall be set aside as to such parcel or property, in which case the said registrar shall within thirty days proceed to a new sale of said property, and bring the proceeds into Court, out of which he shall be paid the purchase money paid to the registrar on said rejected sale, and all taxes assessed on said property since said sale, and all costs and expenses properly incurred in said Court, with interest on all such sums from the time of payment; but such sale shall not be set aside if the provisions of the law appear to have been substantially complied with, and the burden of proof shall be on the exceptant to show the same to be invalid; and for the purpose of making a just distribution of the proceeds of any sale ratified and confirmed, the said Court may pass all such orders as may be just and equitable, and shall have as full and complete jurisdiction as though it were sitting as a Court of equity.

SEC. 67. Whenever real estate shall be sold by the registrar the owner thereof prior to the sale may redeem the same by paying into the said Court, to be paid to the purchaser thereof,
