

of his term of office, and annually thereafter, he shall give bond to the State of Maryland for the use of the mayor and aldermen of Frederick, in a penalty of thirty thousand dollars, with some reliable bonding company as security thereon to be approved by the board of aldermen and to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for Frederick County, the condition of said bond being that if the above bound shall well and faithfully execute the office of city register of Frederick City and tax collector for said city, and shall account for any pay over to the mayor and aldermen of Frederick, the several sums of money which he shall receive for the mayor and aldermen of Frederick, or be answerable for by law, at such times as the law and ordinances of said city and the orders and resolutions of said board of aldermen shall direct, then the said obligation to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue in law. The board of aldermen shall have the right to require of the city register and collector of taxes a new bond whenever in their opinion the existing bond is insufficient. The city register shall have the keeping of the common seal of the corporation; which shall be circular in form and shall have engraved around its margin the words "Corporation of Frederick, Maryland," and upon its center an eagle. The corporation seal shall be used by the city register in all cases provided by ordinance, and in all cases where a corporate seal may be necessary. All fees by him received shall be paid over to the mayor and aldermen of Frederick; he shall receive and take into his charge all monies of said corporation, whether arising from fines, licenses, taxes and forfeitures, or in any other way whatsoever, and deposit it in bank in the name of the mayor and aldermen of Frederick, to be disbursed only in the payment of claims against said corporation, properly allowed and for such purpose as may be directed by the board of aldermen, on warrants signed by himself and countersigned by the mayor. He shall keep a bank-book to contain regular entries of all monies by him deposited, and of all checks by him drawn; he shall keep a regular and fair account in a book or books, in folio, of all monies by him received and expended on account of said corporation. All of the powers, duties and obligations which were heretofore vested in the board of supervisors of elections and board of canvassers are hereby vested in the city register; and whenever the word "Board of Supervisors of Elections," "Board of Supervisors," "Supervisors of Election," "Supervisors," "Board of Canvassers" or "Canvassing Board" appear in the charter of the corporation of Frederick, said words shall be construed to mean city register, or such other
