

SEC. 270m. The city register shall give ten days' notice of the time and place of registration and of revision thereof, and of election in each precinct of said city by handbills set up in the most public places in such precincts, and also by advertisement in two newspapers of general circulation therein, said register shall make all necessary rules and regulations not inconsistent with this article, with reference to the registration of voters and the conduct of elections and he shall have charge of, and make provisions for all elections, general or special, to be held in said city.

SEC. 270 o. The city register shall furnish to each board of registry, for the purpose of such registration, two registry books, which it shall be the duty of said officers of registration to protect and keep safe, each of whom shall be charged with the custody of one of said books during the intervals between the sessions of the board of registry until the return of said books to the city register, as hereinafter provided. Such registry book shall be prepared substantially in the following form: