

CHAPTER 682.

AN ACT to give employers of farm labor in Anne Arundel county the right to prompt restitution of their premises when occupants thereof leave their employ or are discharged.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all employers of farm labor in Anne Arundel county who own, or are the tenants of, premises whereon are located dwelling houses occupied by their employees paid by the day, week or month, with the use of said dwelling house or houses as a part of their compensation, shall have the right to the restitution of their said dwelling house or houses or other buildings whenever any of their said employees shall for any reason leave their employ or be discharged, and the said employers shall have the right to re-enter and take possession of their said premises; provided that before doing so, said employers shall give to their said former employees three days' previous notice in writing as to their intention or desire to regain possession of said premises in cases of laborers employed by the day; and one week's notice where employed by the week; and one month's notice where employed by the month.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1912.

---

CHAPTER 683.

AN ACT to repeal and to re-enact with amendments sections 130, 130A, 131 and 132 of Article 8 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Cecil County," sub-title "Elkton," and to add an additional section to said article under said title and sub-title to follow section 132A, and to be designated 132B.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections 130, 130A, 131 and 132 of Article 8 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Cecil County," sub-title "Elkton," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, and a new section be and the same is hereby added to said Article 8 under said title and sub-title to follow section 132A, and to be designated as section 132B, all of said sections to read as follows:

SEC. 130. Said board shall consist of 5 persons, a president and four commissioners, who shall be citizens of the