

of the same without delay; to prevent and regulate the storage of gun-powder, oil or other combustible matter in such quantities and in such places as they may deem proper; to prevent obstructions on the streets, lanes, alleys and highways of said city; to regulate the width of tires of all heavy vehicles used upon the streets, lanes or alleys of said city; to license carts, wagons, carriages and other vehicles used for transporting goods for sale or hire, or persons for hire, and to provide and regulate the numbering of same; to regulate the speed of horses, wheeled vehicles, automobiles, cars and locomotives in the city limits; to regulate the erection and maintenance of proper safety appliances by railroads at street crossings; to regulate and license all pawnbrokers, junk dealers, fire and slaughter sales, auction sales, peddlers of nostrums, remedies, medicines, notions and other goods, patent, secret or pretended inventions; to regulate and license all nine and ten pin alleys, bowling alleys, pool rooms, skating rinks, theatres, moving picture shows, boxing and sparring matches and wrestling contests, and all shows and exhibitions of every kind; to provide for the restraining of theatricals or other public amusements within the said city; to regulate and prohibit the running or landing of excursions to or in said town; to provide for, require and regulate the construction and maintenance of exits and fire escapes from places of amusement and all public buildings; to prevent gambling and games of chance; to regulate the use of sidewalks and all structures in, under or above the same, and to require the owner or occupant of premises to keep the sidewalks in front of same and the gutters thereof free from snow and other obstructions, and to prescribe hours for cleaning same; to regulate and prevent the throwing of sweepings, dust, ashes, offal, garbage, paper, hand-bills, dirty liquids or any other material into any street, alley or public places or on any vacant lot in said city; to regulate and prevent the use of streets, sidewalks and public places for signs, sign-posts, awnings, awning-posts, poles, horse-troughs, steps, railings, entrances, areaways or any other obstruction, or posting hand-bills and advertisements and display of goods, wares and merchandise and to provide for and enforce the removal of any such that are now erected, planted and being; to grant franchises for and regulate the putting of sewers or drains on or under its streets or alleys, and the charges for tapping or entering same, whether such entrances were made before or after the passage of this act; provided, that persons having paid for entering any such sewer before the passage of this act shall not be required to pay an additional sum or charge for tapping or