

have prepared new books of registry for use in all of the districts or precincts of the said several counties for the transcribing of the names of the qualified voters residing therein from the registration books in use. The said transcribing shall be done in the offices of the Boards of Supervisors of Elections by four (4) clerks, to be selected, two by the Supervisors representing the majority party and two by the Supervisors representing the minority party as the said parties are now constituted in this State. The transcribing shall be done by the said clerks and the new books after being transcribed shall correspond in all respects, and if they do not correspond at the conclusion of the work, or if any error in transcribing be alleged to exist, either or any one of said clerks or any citizen or voter in any one of said counties may file a petition in the Circuit Court within ten days after said work is finished naming said four clerks and the Board of Supervisors of Elections as defendants, and the said Court shall have the power to make such order for the correction of said books as may be proper. Any political party that polled more than one per cent. of the votes cast at the last election may, through its political committee if it has one, or by citizens representing said party, if there be no political committee, name a watcher and substitute watcher who shall be permitted to attend at the transcribing of said names and have power to examine the said books during the sittings of said clerks for the said work and for a period of five days thereafter in the presence of said Board of Supervisors. In the books of registry so provided for to be used in transcribing said registered voters in each and every county of the State subsequent to the passage of this act there shall be provided a distinct column headed "Party Affiliations", and the Board of Registers shall enter in this column the name of the political party, if any, to which the voter is inclined and with which the voter desires to have himself recorded as affiliated. It shall be the duty of the Board of Registry to explain to each voter that the statement of such party affiliation, does not bind him to vote for the candidate of such party at any given election; also that he has the right to decline to state any party affiliation; but that no one who is not recorded upon the register as affiliated with a particular political party will be qualified to vote at subsequent primary elections of said political party. Whenever a voter declines to state his party affiliations, the word "Declined" shall be written opposite his name in such column so that there shall be written in such column opposite the name of every registered voter, either his party affiliations or the word "Declined". Each and every voter as
