

only on the order of the committing justice, the judge of the Circuit Court for Dorchester county, or one of the members of the board, or other lawful process.

60j. Nothing in this sub-division of this article shall be so construed as to destroy or diminish the liability or responsibility of the commissioners of Cambridge for any failure to discharge the duties and obligations of said commissioners of Cambridge, or any of them, or give the said commissioners of Cambridge any control over said board, or any officer of police or policeman appointed thereby.

60k. The said board of police commissioners are authorized, empowered and directed to grant leave of absence with pay for a period of fifteen days in each consecutive year of service to each of the officers of police and policemen of the regular force employed by said board; nor shall any enforced absence with leave on account of sickness or death, be deducted from the pay of any such officer or police or policeman, or from the fifteen days' leave as herein provided for.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to affect the present term of office of the commissioners of Cambridge elected at the last town election held in June, 1910, or the term or tenure of office of any of the officers or employees appointed by said commissioners, but each of said commissioners shall hold office under this act, and have and exercise all the rights, powers, duties and prerogatives vested in and conferred upon the commissioners of Cambridge by this act, except where the same are inconsistent with their present tenure of office, until the third Wednesday of July, 1912, or until their successors are duly elected at the next town election held under this act and duly qualified; and the town clerk and treasurer, collector, attorney, bailiff and all officers, appointees and employees appointed by the present commissioners and holding office under such appointment at the time this act goes into effect shall hold office under this act, and have and exercise all the rights, powers and prerogatives, receive the compensation and be subject to all the requirements, duties and restrictions, which they respectively had received, enjoyed or were subject to prior to the passage of this act; and especially shall this act not be construed so as to interfere with the rights, powers or duties of the collector of town taxes to collect and enforce in accordance with all the provisions of law, the collection of any and all taxes levied and uncollected at the time of the enactment of this act, but said collector shall have and be vested with all the rights and powers now conferred
