

Licenses.

SEC. 235. No person shall have or own any dog or bitch, or keep the same within the limits of said town, if the same be over six months old, unless he pay a license therefor to the Mayor and City Council, on or before the first day of June in each and every year, of fifty cents for each dog, and of one dollar for each bitch. And the said Mayor and City Council shall have power to provide by ordinance for the impounding and killing of every dog or bitch whose owner shall fail or refuse to pay said license.

SEC. 236. No person shall exhibit any circus or menagerie, or give any theatrical exhibition or other show within the limits of said town until he shall have paid such license therefor as the said Mayor and City Council shall prescribe, which shall not exceed twenty dollars for each show or exhibition; provided that this section shall not apply to entertainments given for religious benefit or for charitable purposes, nor to entertainments given by the residents of the town not for gain. The said Mayor and City Council may also prevent the exhibition of any indecent or immoral shows in said town.

"B." All licenses or permits now provided to be issued by the Mayor and City Council of Laurel, or in its name, or which may hereafter be provided for by legislative enactment or by ordinance shall be issued by the collector, who shall keep an accurate and complete record thereof.

SEC. 237. The County Commissioners of Prince George's County shall annually pay to the Mayor and City Council of Laurel, when and as collected, less the expenses of collection, all taxes levied or taxed for public roads on property within the limits of the said town, which shall be expended by the said Mayor and City Council in the repair and improvements of the streets and roads within the limits of said town.

City Solicitor.

SEC. 238. The Mayor shall on the fourth Monday in April, of each and every year, appoint a City Solicitor, subject to the confirmation of the City Council, who shall be the legal representative of the Mayor and City Council, of Laurel, and shall receive an annual salary of one hundred dollars.

SEC. 239. No hogs shall be kept within the corporate limits of the town, unless they be confined in a pen or enclosure at least one hundred and fifty feet from any dwelling house or well, measuring from the said pen or enclosure to the nearest point of any dwelling house or well. Anyone convicted of a violation of this section shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars.
