

ment granting any release, or the performance of any duty required by law in criminal cases, or when acting as coroner; but the said County Commissioners shall in no case pay the aforesaid salary until the said police justice shall have first filed his monthly reports as required by section 4 of this act.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That if any police justice shall be unable by reason of sickness, absence, relationship or other temporary cause whatever to attend to his duties as such police justice, it shall be the duty of the State's attorney for said county to designate and require another justice of the peace, to perform the duties of said police justice so sick, absent or otherwise unable to perform the duties of his office, so long as the same may be necessary, and the State's attorney shall forthwith certify any selection he may make to the County Commissioners of Dorchester County. The justice so required to perform said duties as police justice shall receive the same compensation prescribed for said police justice, and shall be paid by the County Commissioners, who shall deduct the same from the salary of the police justice for whom he was serving.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1912.

CHAPTER 699.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact sections 101 and 106 of Article 39 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland of 1904, title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Chesapeake Bay," and to add a new section, 103A, and to follow immediately after section 102 of said article; said new section providing for further regulation of fishing in the waters of said bay.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections 101 and 106 of Article 39 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland of 1904, title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Chesapeake Bay," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

SEC. 101. Any person, firm or corporation desiring to engage in the business of taking or catching of fish for sale, by the use of pound nets, fykes, haul seines or other contrivances,
