

charter of said town as the same may from time to time be amended, for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds, and also for paying the principal thereof, and during the ten years next following the date of issue of said bonds the Commissioners of Preston shall create a sinking fund for the payment of a portion of said bonds at the expiration of ten years after the date of issue, and shall levy the necessary taxes therefor; but all taxes levied for payment of principal of said bonds after ten years from date of issue of same shall be applied directly to the payment of said principal.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Preston shall levy, in addition to the tax herein provided for, an additional tax of twenty cents per lineal front foot on all land improved by buildings adjoining the streets, roads, lanes or alleys where said system of sewers shall be laid; but if the land be not improved by buildings or it be in a corner facing two streets in which said sewer is laid, then a tax of ten cents per lineal front foot shall be levied, and in case of land unimproved by buildings an additional tax of ten cents per lineal front foot shall be levied whenever such land shall be improved by buildings.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Preston shall charge all persons using said sewers as follows: On all private dwellings, the sum of four dollars per year; on all public buildings, a sum to be fixed by the Commissioners of Preston according to the amount of usage by the persons in said building, but not to exceed the sum of ten dollars per year.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the power to issue bonds herein granted is conditional, and it is hereby provided that the question of issuing said bonds shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said Town of Preston at the regular town election to be held on the first Monday in May, 1912. At said election all voters desiring to vote on said question shall cast a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words "For the Bond Issue" or "Against the Bond Issue," as the voter shall desire; and if a majority of the votes cast at said election shall be "For the Bond Issue," the said Commissioners of Preston shall issue and sell the bonds as herein directed; but if a majority of the votes cast at said election shall be "Against the Bond Issue," then said bonds shall not be issued. And the said Commissioners of Preston shall cause this act to be published in some newspaper published in said town at least one week before such election.
