

gers and travelers; to regulate and license auctioneers who cry sales on the public streets; provided no greater sum than one hundred dollars be charged for any one license. The said commissioners shall impose a license of one hundred dollars per annum upon all saloons, hotels, taverns, restaurant and all other places where malt, spirituous and fermented liquors and lager beer are sold, and they are given full power and authority to pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the regulation and control of the traffic in said liquors within said town, and to regulate and control all offensive trades, manufactures and traffic in offensive or dangerous materials, or commodities, within the limits; they shall also have power to provide for the codification of all ordinances, which may hereafter be passed; and for the purpose of carrying out the foregoing powers, and for the preservation of the cleanliness, help, peace and good order of the community, and for the protection of the lives and property of the citizens and to suppress, abate or discontinue all nuisances within the corporate and sanitary limits of said town, they may pass all ordinances or by-laws from time to time necessary, and to the observance of said ordinances, in addition to the action of debt or such other civil remedies as may exist in such cases by law for the recovery of the penalty thereto affixed, they may affix thereto such reasonable fines, not exceeding fifty dollars in any case, as to them may appear right; and in default of the payment of any fine imposed, they may provide for the imprisonment of the offender for a period not exceeding twenty days, or until the fine be paid. Instead of the aforesaid penalties, it shall be lawful in case of the conviction of any person for vagrancy to sentence such person to hard work on the streets of said town for a period not exceeding ten days.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners shall have power to lay an equal tax on the property within the limits of said town, to such an amount each year not exceeding the sum of fifty cents on each hundred dollars' worth of property as may be deemed necessary for the government of said town, which taxes so levied and assessed shall be collected promptly by the Bailiff of said town, and by said Bailiff paid over as collected, or within five days thereafter, to the treasurer of said town; and the Bailiff of said town shall have the same power to distrain for taxes as the collector of public county taxes has to distrain for the same; and the said Commissioners shall fix the amount of bond rate of compensation, and prescribe the duties respectively of the said Bailiff and Treasurer on all property within the limits of Barton, or they may have a situs by reason