

sioners, one person for Clerk and one person for Bailiff, and such Judges of Election before opening the polls, shall take the oath before some Justice of the Peace to permit every qualified voter to vote and none other, and a majority of said judges shall have power to do all things in case one of them dies or refuses to act.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That at the election provided for in section 14 of this act each voter shall be provided with a ticket by the judges of election similar to what is known as the Australian Ballot, which is being used in Allegany county, State of Maryland, for all county and State elections, and which shall have printed thereon "For Incorporation" and "Against Incorporation," which aforesaid ticket shall be the official ballot; the aforesaid official ballot shall be numbered by the judges of election from one to the highest number voted consecutively; the judges of election being hereby prohibited from accepting any other ticket; and if a majority of the qualified voters in said town shall vote in favor of incorporation, then the provisions of this act shall take effect, and the election thereunder shall be valid; but if a majority of the said voters shall vote against incorporation, then this act shall be void for a period of one year, or until the third Monday in April, 1913, when the qualified voters of said town may assemble and vote as herein provided; and if at the second election a majority of the qualified voters of said town shall vote for incorporation, then the provisions of this act shall take effect, and the election thereunder shall be valid; and if a majority of said voters shall vote against incorporation at this election, then this act shall be held void until the third Monday in April, 1914, when the qualified voters of said town may again assemble and vote as herein provided; and if a majority of the qualified voters of said town shall vote for incorporation, then the provisions of this act shall take effect, and the election thereunder shall be valid, but if a majority of said voters shall vote against incorporation, then this act shall be held utterly null and void.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1912.
