

Manufacturing Company as defined and set out in section 1 of Chapter 267 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1902, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Patapsco Electric and Manufacturing Company," be and the same are hereby enlarged, and said section in so far as it relates to the corporate powers of said company is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 1. That said body corporate under the name and style of the Patapsco Electric and Manufacturing Company, shall have perpetual succession, and shall be capable to sue and be sued, to plead and to be impleaded, and to complain or defend in any court of law or equity; to make and use a common seal and alter the same at pleasure; to receive and make deeds, leases and mortgages; to acquire by purchase or in any other manner take, receive, hold, use, employ, manage, dispose of, mortgages, or in any manner not inconsistent with law, deal in and contract in regard to any water rights, property, real or personal, or mixed, situate in or out of this State, which may be necessary or proper to enable said corporation to carry out its operations or fulfill the purposes named in this act; to apply for, purchase or in any manner acquire, hold, use, own, work or operate or sell or in any manner acquire, hold, use, own, work or operate or sell or in any manner dispose of any patents, inventions, improvements or processes relating to the business authorized by this charter; also, to enter into, make, perform and enforce contracts of every kind, with any person, firm, association or corporation with reference to the business authorized under the terms of this charter, and generally to do every other act or thing not inconsistent with law, which in the discretion of its board of directors may be necessary or proper to promote the objects, designs and purposes for which this corporation is formed, which are hereby declared to be for the purpose of manufacturing and selling electricity for illuminating purposes, for heat, for power and for all other purposes to which electricity or magnetism may be applied, and for the further purpose of manufacturing, buying, selling, dealing in and furnishing all kinds of machinery and supplies used in and incident to a general electrical business and the conduct thereof; and the said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to purchase or construct or to string or build pole lines, conduits, along, upon or over any streets, lanes, alleys, turnpikes, roads, waters and ways whatsoever, provided that said construction where within the limits of any incorporated city or town shall be done under consent the supervision of the mayor and town council thereof, and when within the limits of Baltimore City