

the said clerk for the use of the public schools of said county, and fifty cents to be paid the clerk for his fee for issuing said license. And any non-resident convicted before any justice of the peace in the said county for violating the provisions of this section shall be fined twenty dollars for each and every offense, and shall forfeit his gun, ammunition and other apparatus; and on failure to pay said fine the offender shall be confined in the county jail for ten days, and the gun so forfeited shall be sold after giving ten days' notice of time and place of sale by written notice posted at three or more public places in said county at public auction to the highest bidder for cash by the officer making the arrest. The proceeds of said sale, after deducting five dollars as a fee to the officer for making the sale, to be paid over to the justice of the peace before whom the offender was tried, to be held by the said justice of the peace, together with all other fines collected by him under the provisions of this section, to be by law disposed of as directed in section 43; and it is further provided, that no person or persons shall hunt upon the lands or premises of another with dog or gun without the written permission of the landowner. Residents hunting upon the lands of another with dog or gun without permission of the landowner shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty-five dollars and costs, and upon failure to pay the same the offender shall be confined to the county jail for a period of not less than ten nor more than thirty days; provided, however, that the offender upon conviction shall have a right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Charles County within twenty days from the date of the judgment of the justice of the peace.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
