

and as soon as by requisite legislation of the State of Maryland the control and management of all the real and personal property of the said college should be placed in the hands of the trustees elected by the said convention, and all other legislation should be obtained which in the judgment of the said convention of the said church might be necessary to carry out the said object; and,

WHEREAS, On the 31st day of May, 1911, the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Maryland did, by resolution duly passed, declare that it would establish upon the property in Washington county, Maryland, belonging to the Corporation of the College of St. James, a diocesan school for boys when and as soon as by requisite legislation, as aforesaid, the control and management of all the real and personal property of said college should be placed in the hands of trustees elected by the said convention, and all other necessary legislation could be obtained to carry out the above-named object; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 3 of Chapter 253 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the year 1843, entitled "An Act to incorporate a literary institution in Washington county under the name of the College of St. James, and section 1 of Chapter 381 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the year 1858, entitled 'An Act supplementary to the Act of December Session, 1843, Chapter 253, entitled 'An Act to incorporate a literary institution in Washington county under the name of the College of St. James,' " be and the same are hereby repealed, and the following section be and the same is hereby enacted in lieu thereof:

SEC. 1. That the entire management of the affairs and concerns of the said corporation and College of St. James and all the corporate powers granted thereto by Chapter 253 of the Acts of 1843, aforesaid, and Chapter 381 of the Acts of 1858, aforesaid, shall be and are hereby vested in a board of nine trustees, seven of whom shall be residents of the State of Maryland, to be annually elected by the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of Maryland.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1912.