

posed of three taxpayers, residing in Queen Anne's county, one member of each of said committees to be named and appointed by the Board of County School Commissioners, one each to be named and appointed by the County Commissioners of Queen Anne's county, and the two so named and appointed shall name and appoint the third member of said advisory committees, respectively, to said Board of County School Commissioners; said advisory committees so named for each of the school buildings to be erected under the provisions of this act shall, in such school district, aid said Board of County School Commissioners in the selection of a suitable site upon which to erect the school in the school district for which the committee shall be appointed, shall aid in the selection of suitable plans for the school building to be erected in the school district, and shall aid in supervising and superintending the erection of the school building in the respective school districts for which said committees shall be appointed; said committee shall act without compensation, and shall be appointed on or before May 15th, 1912; and in the event the said two members of said committees so appointed shall fail to agree on the selection of the third member of said committee within fifteen days from the date of their appointment, then the Board of County Commissioners of said county shall forthwith name the third member of said committee.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That in negotiating the sale of the said bonds provided for in this act, the said County Commissioners shall first give not less than three weeks' notice by advertisement in two newspapers printed and published in Queen Anne's county, also by advertisement once a week for three successive weeks in one or more newspapers printed and published in Baltimore City, inviting proposals in writing for the purchase of said bonds, and on a certain day to be named in said advertisement, said County Commissioners shall in their office in the Court House in Centreville, Queen Anne's county, Maryland, open all bids received, and the said bonds shall be disposed of to the highest bidder for cash at not less than the par value and accrued interest thereof; but the said County Commissioners shall have power to offer any, or all of said bonds at one time, or to offer them or any of them at such time or times as the said County Commissioners shall deem necessary for the purposes herein provided; and shall have power to refuse and reject any and all bids, and to reoffer the same bonds or any part thereof as above provided or otherwise, in their discretion, if the said bids received under the first offer are below the par value with accrued interest; provided, that the said bonds