CHAPTER 74.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section 216E of Article one of the Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Allegany County," sub-title "Roads," as said section was enacted by Chapter 83 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland for the year 1910; to raise additional funds for permanent road building in Allegany county, and to authorize the road directors of Allegany county to issue bonds.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 216E of Article one of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Allegany County," sub-title "Roads," as said section was amended by Chapter 83 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1910, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

SEC. 216E. The County Commissioners of Allegany County shall in their annual levy for the year 1912 and annually thereafter, levy upon the assessable property in Allegany county not less than forty thousand dollars for the use of the road directors of Allegany county, which shall be collected as other taxes are collected, and to the extent of such levy the county treasurer of Allegany county shall honor the drafts to be signed by the chairman of such road directors, and to be countersigned by the road engineer; but this act shall not be construed as depriving the County Commissioners of such power as they may possess of appropriating sums of money to the different incorporated towns of the county for road improvements; and said County Commissioners are further directed by their annual levy for the year 1912 to levy upon the assessable property of Allegany county an additional sum of twenty-five thousand dollars and by their annual levy for the years 1913, 1914 and 1915, a like sum of twenty-five thousand dollars in each of said years for the use of the road directors of such county in the building of perma-
