

for appeal by the said warden of the Baltimore City Jail or said superintendent of the Maryland House of Correction, the person so receiving the same shall endorse thereon the time of such receipt by him, forthwith transmit by mail or otherwise said order of appeal, together with a copy of the commitment in said case, to the said justice who has sentenced the said person; and said justice, upon receipt of said order or prayer for appeal, shall endorse thereon the date of its receipt by him and transmit to the Criminal Court of Baltimore a copy of the commitment of the said justice in said case, with a list of the names and addresses of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, together with said order or prayer for appeal.

SEC. 632C. In all cases in which the convicted person is entitled to an appeal under said section 632A, and fails to prosecute his appeal within the time provided in said section, it shall thereafter conclusively presumed that the said justice informed the said party charged of his right to a jury trial in said case, and that the said party waived the same.

SEC. 632D. In all cases in which any said justice of the peace assigned to any station-house in Baltimore City may impose as a penalty for the crime any sentence of imprisonment, the said justice may in his discretion, impose imprisonment either in the Baltimore City Jail or in the Maryland House of Correction; but in all cases in which the said imprisonment is imposed only in default of the payment of fine or costs, the said imprisonment shall be only in the Baltimore City Jail.

SEC. 632E. Whenever application is made upon oath before any justice of the peace, assigned to any of the station-houses in the City of Baltimore for the issuance of a warrant for the arrest of any person or persons charged with the violation of any ordinance of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, the violations of which ordinance is punishable by a pecuniary fine only of not more than $100, the said justice of the peace may, in his discretion, instead of then issuing said warrant, issue a summons to the person for whom the said warrant is asked, to show cause before him on the day when said summons is made returnable why the said warrant should not be issued.

SEC. 632F. In all cases where application is made to any justice of the peace assigned to any station-house in the City of Baltimore, for a warrant for the arrest of any person charged with the commission of a bailable offense, it shall be the duty of the said justice of the peace before issuing said warrant to determine the amount of bail to be required in
