

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That any person or persons violating either of the two preceding sections that on conviction thereof be fined a sum not less than two dollars and not more than ten dollars for each and every offense with the cost of prosecution; and all prosecutions shall be in the name of the State before a justice of the peace of said county; provided that any one applying to the clerk of the Circuit Court of Baltimore County may obtain a permit good for one year from the date of issue by paying to the said clerk the sum of five dollars, authorizing the holder thereof to catch any birds, collect and take their nests and eggs for scientific purposes only, without being subject to the penalty imposed by this section: but before said clerk shall issue said permit he shall require the applicant thereof to produce before him satisfactory written testimony from at least two scientific men certifying to the good character of the applicant, and that he is a proper person to be entrusted with such privilege; and he shall also demand from said applicant a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by said clerk, in the sum of one hundred dollar conditioned for the strict observance of the privilege so granted; should the person obtaining such permit catch any of the birds mentioned in section four or disturb or destroy the eggs or young as mentioned in section five of this article for other than scientific purposes, he shall forfeit to the county the bond herein required to be given, and shall also be subject for each offense to the penalty in this section for other purposes.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the possession by any person or persons within said county, of the birds mentioned in section four of this act whether taken in the State of Maryland or elsewhere, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation by such person or persons of section four of this act, and it shall be the duty of any constable, police officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff, deputy game warden or chief game warden of said county to arrest any and all persons they may detect in or who may be charged with the violation of sections four or five of this act, and take them before a justice of the peace to be dealt with according to law.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That no person shall shoot or in any manner catch, kill, trap, pursue, injure, hunt, take or have in possession in Baltimore county any rabbit, jack-rabbit, cotton-tail, pheasant, ruffed-grouse, ring-necked pheasant, partridge or quail between December 20th and November 10th, exclusive, of both dates, or upon any Sunday or election day, or when the ground is sufficiently covered with snow to track the rabbits or birds above mentioned; and no person shall shoot or