

time of making his report, pay over to the County Commissioners, all such fines, costs, penalties and forfeitures enumerated in his said report.

SEC. 10. Be it enacted, That in the event of the absence of the said Police Justice, any one of the judges of the Circuit Court for Montgomery county shall designate and appoint one of the other justices of the peace of said county to act during his absence, who shall, for the time being be clothed with all the powers and authorities of said Police Justice. And in the event of death, removal or resignation of said Police Justice so appointed by the provisions of this act, any one of the judges of the Circuit Court for Montgomery county may appoint and designate one of the justices of the peace of said county to act as and in place of said Police Justice for the remainder of term, for which said Police Justice had been appointed; provided, however, that said justice so appointed shall comply with the provisions of this act in the matter of giving bond and making reports as herein provided for.

SEC. 11. Be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of said Police Justice and every other justice of the peace of the said county to have all charges made against any person because of the alleged commission by such person of any criminal offense carefully examined into to the end that while justice shall be done no person shall be subjected to costs or imprisonment without sufficient cause.

SEC. 12. Be it enacted, That in all criminal prosecution or proceedings had before any justice of the peace of Montgomery county of which the said justice has jurisdiction, it shall be the duty of the said justice of the peace, in the event of conviction of the accused at the said trial, to impose upon the said accused so convicted the fine or fines and punishment prescribed in the case of such conviction by the Act of Assembly of Maryland, or by ordinance of any incorporated town in Montgomery county for the violation of which the accused was so tried; provided, however, that no justice of the peace shall have the power or authority to sentence any committed prisoner for the commission of any felony.

SEC. 13. Be it enacted, That this repeal and re-enactment with amendments of the said act mentioned in the title of this act shall not affect any act done or any right accruing or accrued or any suit or proceeding, had or commenced in any civil or criminal cause before such repeal and re-enactment with amendments but all rights and liabilities under the said act so repealed and re-enacted with amendments shall continue and may be