

Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Washington County," sub-title "Birds and Game," to be known as sections 34M, 34N, 34O, 34P, 34Q and 34R, and when so added to read as follows:

SEC. 34M. A certificate to be known as a propagating certificate may be issued by the State Game Warden to any accredited person of this county of the age of 21 years or upwards, permitting the holder thereof and his assistants to breed or raise game quadrupeds or game birds of any kind in this county, both or either, and to sell the same alive for propagating purposes only for profit, under the following restrictions and regulations: Any corporation, association or person desiring to operate a propagating plant for game in this county shall file with the State Game Warden a petition asking for this privilege, and in all cases where the premises intended to be used for this purpose are under the control of a company or association the petition shall bear the name of the president of such body and the certificate shall be issued in his name. This petition shall be accompanied by a written description of the premises to be used for such purpose, with its location, which said premises for the purpose of this act in the matter of the raising of game may be in such form as to the operator seems best suited to his purpose.

SEC. 34N. The certificate herein provided for shall be good for one year from the date thereof and shall not be transferable. A bond hereinafter provided for shall be forfeited to the State and the certificate to become void upon the conviction of the principal therein named for having violated any of the provisions of this section, or having knowingly or negligently permitted anyone to violate any of the game laws of this State or county on his premises.

SEC. 34 O. Upon notification of the favorable consideration of this petition by the State Game Warden, the applicant shall pay to the State Treasurer of the State of Maryland for the use of the petition of propagating game within the county the sum of $10.00, and file duly executed bond properly secured in the sum of $200.00, conditioned for the faithful keeping upon the part of the principal therein named and his employees upon said premises, of all the provisions of this section and all other game laws of this county or State. He shall have as nearly as possible a just and true account in a book to be kept for the purpose only of all game raised on said premises and a just and true account of all game brought to said premises from outside of the preserve; number of birds or animals with the time they were received and the place from whence they were shipped and
