

of their proceedings in a well-bound book, which shall be open at any time to the inspection of any one interested. If said commissioners appoint the clerk treasurer, the said clerk shall give a bond in such sum as the commissioners shall deem proper, and shall pay out the money that shall come into his hands only on the order of the commissioners, which order shall plainly appear in the minutes.

Ibid. sec. 8.

33. That the commissioners shall annually appoint a bailiff and such under bailiffs as may be necessary.

Ibid. sec. 9.

34. That the commissioners shall allow their clerk and bailiff such compensation as they shall think proper.

Ibid. sec. 10.

35. That the commissioners and all other officers of the corporation, including judges of election, shall, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, make oath that they will diligently and faithfully to the best of their abilities, skill and judgment, perform their duties of office, and shall file a certificate of the same among the records of the corporation.

Ibid. sec. 11.

36. That the bailiff and clerk shall give bond in such sum as may be deemed proper by the commissioners for the faithful performance of their respective duties.

1904. ch. 680, sec. 12.

37. That the commissioners shall receive all returns of election and shall determine all questions arising thereon, but any person feeling aggrieved by such decision may appeal therefrom to the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, which Court shall hear and determine such appeal and who shall pay the cost thereof.

Ibid. sec. 13.

38. That the commissioners may pass such ordinances not inconsistent with the laws of the State, as they may deem beneficial to the town, may open and close streets, lanes and alleys, grade and pave the same, remove nuisances and obstructions therefrom, restrain all disorders and disturbances, prevent all congregations of disorderly persons in public places, apprehend all tramps and vagabonds, impose a tax on dogs, geese, hogs and other animals running at large in the streets, or totally prohibit the same; and may impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violation of their ordinances, and commit all offenders to the county jail until the same be paid with costs; may pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the preservation of the health of the town and remove all nuisances from or prohibit all business within the corporate limits thereof, as shall, in their opinion, injuriously affect the sanitary conditions thereof.