

P. L. L. (1888), art. 16, sec. 54.

52. It shall not be lawful for any person to unnecessarily destroy the nests or take the eggs of any of the birds protected by the preceding section.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 16, sec. 55. 1892, ch. 370. 1900, ch. 383. 1902, ch. 288.

53. No person shall trap, shoot, or in any manner catch, kill or take any partridge in Montgomery county between the twentieth day of December and the first day of November, nor any woodcock between the first day of January and the first day of July, nor any pheasants between the first day of January and the first day of September, nor any wild turkey between the first day of March and the first day of November, nor any gray squirrel between the fifteenth day of December and the first day of August, nor shall any person shoot any rabbit in said county between the twentieth day of December and the first day of November, or in any other manner catch, kill or take any rabbit in said county between the first day of November and the fifteenth day of January.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 16, sec. 56.

54. It shall not be lawful for any person to sell for the purpose of being carried out of the county, or to carry out of the county for the purpose of selling, any partridge, pheasant or wild turkey.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 16, sec. 57. 1890, ch. 165, sec. 57.

55. Any person violating any of the provisions of the four preceding sections on conviction thereof, shall be fined ten dollars and costs, to be recovered in the name of the State before a justice of the peace; and in default of payment shall be committed to the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days; all fines recovered under this section shall be disbursed as follows: One-half to the informer, and the remainder to the public schools of said county.

1902, ch. 17, sec. 55.

56. It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident of said county to shoot any partridge, pheasant, woodcock, wild turkey, wild duck, squirrel or rabbit in said county without having first obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county a license permitting the person therein named to shoot said game in said county for one year from the day on which such license was issued, and such license shall not be transferable. The person named therein or party procuring such license shall pay to said clerk therefor the sum of $15 per year, which amount shall be paid by said clerk to the Board of School Commissioners of said county for the use of the public schools of said county, and fifty cents to the clerk as a fee for issuing such license; and any non-resident convicted before a justice of the peace of said county for gunning therein without first having obtained the license aforesaid