

shall be fined twenty-five dollars for each and every such offense; on failure to pay said fine and costs the offender shall be committed to the county jail for twenty days; the one-half of all fines so imposed under this act shall be paid to the informer and the remainder to the Board of County School Commissioners of said county for the use of the public schools of said county. Provided, that nothing in this act shall prevent the owners of land from Montgomery county from giving written permission to non-residents to hunt upon their own lands in said county.

BROOKEVILLE.

57. That the citizens of the Town of Brookeville, in Montgomery county, be and they are hereby created a body corporate by the name of "The Commissioners of Brookeville," with all the favors and privileges of a body politic and corporate, and by said corporate name may have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any Court of law or equity in said county, and may have or use a common seal.

Ibid. sec. 2.

58. That the corporate limits of said town shall be as follows: Beginning on the east side of the Brookeville and Washington turnpike at the end of the dividing line between the lands of John W. Metz and Mrs. Caroline Edmondstone; then westerly through the lands of William B. Miller and Elisha J. Hall to a large branch willow tree on the west bank of Meadow Branch; then with the east bank of said branch to its intersection with Reedy Branch; thence with the east side of Reedy Branch to the point where it is crossed by the road leading to the farm of Mrs. Catherine Riggs; then with the east side of Back street to its intersection with Spring Branch; then with said branch through the land of the Protestant Episcopal Rectory and Mrs. Caroline Edmondstone to the dividing line between the lands of said Caroline Edmondstone and John W. Metz; thence with said line to the place of beginning.

59. That the citizens of said town having resided therein six months previous to any election shall, on the first Monday in May, in the year 1912, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, and on the first Monday in May in every second year thereafter, elect three Commissioners of Brookeville, to serve for two years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified; the commissioners must be substantial citizens resident in said corporate limits, and must have resided therein for at least six months next preceding their election; must be owners of real estate within said corporate limits, and must continue to reside within said corporate limits during their term of office. They shall receive no pay for the services,
