

Ibid. sec. 12.

68. That the commissioners shall receive all returns of election and determine all questions arising thereon; but any person feeling himself aggrieved by such decisions may appeal therefrom to the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, which Court shall hear and determine such appeal and decide who shall pay the costs thereof.

Ibid. sec. 13.

69. That the commissioners may pass such ordinances, not inconsistent with law, as they may deem beneficial to the town; may open and close streets, lanes and alleys; straighten, grade and pave the same; remove nuisances and obstructions therefrom; restrain all disorders and disturbances; prevent all congregations of disorderly persons in public places; apprehend and fine all tramps and vagabonds; impose a tax on dogs, geese, hogs and other animals running at large on the streets, or totally prohibit the same, and may impose fines, penalties and forfeiture for the violation of their ordinances and commit all offenders to the county jail until the same be paid with costs.

1890, ch. 118, sec. 14.

70. That the commissioners may pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the preservation of the health of the town, and remove all nuisances from, or prohibit all business within the corporate limits thereof as shall, in their opinion, injuriously affect the sanitary condition thereof.

Ibid. sec. 15.

71. That the commissioners may, as often as they deem advisable, cause an assessment to be made of all real and personal property within said town or the corporate limits thereof, by a person to be appointed and paid by them, which assessment shall not exceed the assessments for State and county purposes, and the commissioners may levy a tax thereon not exceeding ten cents on the hundred dollars' worth of assessable property.

Ibid. sec. 16.

72. That any person may appeal from the valuation of the assessor to the commissioners, who shall meet on the first Monday in June after any such assessment, and remain in session as long as may be reasonably necessary, to hear and determine such appeals, and shall give reasonable notice of such meeting, and shall increase or abate such assessment as they may deem just.

Ibid. sec. 17.

73. That whenever the commissioners shall levy a tax, they shall cause to be made out an alphabetical list of the persons charged therein, and shall cause to be affixed thereto the respective sums to be collected from such persons, and a warrant to the chief bailiff to collect the same.
