

Ibid. sec. 24.

80. That any fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this charter, or by any ordinance of the commissioners, may be collected by proceedings in the name of the commissioners, as other small debts are collected, or a justice of the peace shall have power to commit the offender to the county jail on failure to pay such fines and forfeitures until the same shall be paid with costs.

Ibid. sec. 25.

81. That the commissioners shall not expend or contract to expend, in any one year, more money than the amount receivable from taxes and other sources for that year.

1890, ch. 118, sec. 26.

82. That the commissioners for the county, justices of the peace, sheriff, constables and all State and county officers shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town as if this charter had not been granted; and the commissioners of Montgomery county shall annually pay to the commissioners of Brookeville a sum equal to all taxes levied for the repair of roads upon the real property in said town, to be used on the public streets of said town for the maintenance and repair thereof.

Ibid. sec. 27.

83. That the commissioners shall have power to establish the original building lines on all the streets in said town as far as practicable without removing present buildings; to establish building lines on any streets hereafter opened, and to compel all persons erecting buildings in said town to conform thereto.

Ibid. sec. 28.

84. That the parts of the several county roads within the limits of said town are hereby made and declared to be public streets or avenues of said town, and shall be from time to time improved and repaired as in the discretion of the commissioners the public interests may require and the resources of the town will justify; but this section shall not be construed as interfering in any manner with the rights of the Brookeville and Washington Turnpike Company in maintaining their road through said town; provided, however, that the commissioners may lay sidewalks along said turnpike road in such manner as not to impede or obstruct the proper use thereof by said company.

Ibid. sec. 29.

85. That neglect or non use shall not work a forfeiture of this charter.
