

Ibid. sec. 2.

125. That the county commissioners of said county be and they are hereby directed to levy for any cause, to be paid to said clerk a reasonable compensation, for the work hereby directed; said compensation to be fixed by the sworn account of said clerk, approved by one or more of the judges of said court.

Ibid. sec. 3.

126. That after the passage of this act said clerk when and as each cause is brought, shall enter in said general index the names of all parties to said cause, and where the object of the suit is the sale of lands, the name of the owner or claimant of said land, and when and as the papers in any cause are recorded the book and page of such record, for which he shall be entitled to charge and receive such fees as are now charged for indexing in the general indexes of the land records, which fees shall be taxed as and become part of the costs of such cause, to be recovered as other costs in such cases are or may be paid.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

1892, ch. 418, sec. 61.

127. There shall be five county commissioners for Montgomery county, one of whom shall be a resident of each of the five collection districts of said county as the same are now established, and whose terms of service shall be as follows: At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three, the qualified voters of Montgomery county shall elect five county commissioners, and the returns thereof shall be transmitted to the Governor as provided in the general election laws of this State, and when the Governor shall have ascertained the names of the five persons who shall have been elected at said election, he shall write the names of said persons on slips of paper and draw therefrom, by lot, the names of two persons whose terms of service shall be two years from the date of their election and until their successors shall be elected and qualified, and the remaining three persons so elected shall serve for the term of four years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified, and thereafter, as their respective terms expire, the county commissioners shall be elected for the term of four years; and the Governor shall state in the commission to be issued to said county commissioners elected at the said election to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three, the term for which the