

upon said commissioners to prefer, in approving such place or places of deposit, the bank or institution, or banks or institutions, which shall agree to pay 2 per cent. upon monthly balance of such deposits over such as may not be willing to pay such interest.

Ibid. sec. 62g.

135. He shall, as soon as the annual levy is made, give notice thereof by advertisement in two newspapers published in Montgomery county, which notice shall state the time from which taxes bear interest, and shall warn all taxpayers of their liability, to be published as delinquent taxpayers and to have their property sold unless the taxes with which they are charged are paid on or before the first day of January then next ensuing. He shall also, immediately after the levy is made, make out the bill of each taxpayer, to which a similar notice shall be annexed, and upon application shall forward the bill by mail or otherwise to the person or his agent to whom taxes have been assessed.

1906, ch. 171, sec. 62h.

136. He shall attend in person or by deputy, in each election district, at least one day between the date of the levy of taxes and the first day of September, in each year, and at least two days between the first day of September and the thirty-first day of December, in each year, to collect and receive taxes, and the time and place of such attendance shall be made known not less than ten days in advance by handbills conspicuously posted in such districts and by advertisement in two newspapers published in said county.

137. Immediately upon the first day of January in each and every year he shall make an alphabetical list by collection districts as now established by law, in their numerical order, of taxes due and in arrears, which list shall contain the name or names of the person or persons or body corporate assessed with property upon which taxes are due and in arrears a brief description of the property, and such references to conveyances as will render the same certain of identification and the amount of the tax levied and in arrears, with the interests and costs accrued, and to accrue thereon to the day of sale, to which list shall be appended a notice that if said tax or taxes are not paid on or before the second Monday in April next ensuing, together with the interest accrued thereon and the proportional cost of advertising and fees, he will proceed at ten o'clock A. M. on said second Monday in April, at the court house in said county, to offer each and every
