

1906, ch. 171, sec. 62v.

150. He shall also pay over the State taxes by him from time to time collected, as required by the provisions of the said Public General Laws.

1906, ch. 171, sec. 62w-1.

151. The county commissioners shall annually, at their first meeting in the month of March in each year, appoint one competent person residing in each election district to be assessor for said election district of said county, whose duty it shall be by all lawful means to inform himself of all property of whatsoever nature, including stocks, bonds and other instruments created or acquired in their respective election districts, which is not included in the list of assessments, and annually, before the twenty-fifth day of April in each year, shall value the same and make returns of such valuations verified by affidavit, giving the names of the reputed owners of said property, together with their postoffice addresses and the description and the value, as fixed by him, of such property, to the county commissioners, who shall levy and pay to each of said assessors in full for their services, an amount not exceeding two dollars per thousand of newly assessed property in all election districts except Rockville, Bethesda and Wheaton, and not exceeding one dollar per thousand of newly assessed property in said last named districts, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to the county commissioners to mail to the postoffice addresses of each person, as shown by said return, a written notice warning such person of the intention of the county commissioners after ten days from the date of such notice, which date shall be the mailing of such notice, to assess to such person said property appearing by said return to belong to such person, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before expiration of ten days from the date of such notice; and in the event no good cause to the contrary be shown within the time limited by such notice the county commissioners shall proceed to assess such property to the persons appearing by said returns to be the owners thereof at the valuation placed thereon by such assessors.

1906, ch. 171, sec. 62x.

152. All county taxes shall be due as soon as they are levied, and if not paid on or before the first day of September of the year in which they are levied shall bear interest from that date until paid at the rate of six per centum per annum, and at any time after the first day of January next succeeding the date of the levy, and not before, payment may be enforced by sale, as hereinbefore provided.