

Ibid. sec. 4.

166. That said constables shall hold said office at the pleasure of said county commissioners, and shall be removed, transferred or assigned or dismissed at the pleasure of said county commissioners.

Ibid. sec. 5.

167. That the county commissioners aforesaid are hereby authorized and empowered to annually levy the sum of two thousand dollars each and every year, and shall pay to said constables so appointed under the provisions of this act such sum or sums of money as said commissioners shall deem just and proper for service performed by said constables.

CRIER.

1908, ch. 31, sec. 67.

168. The crier of the Circuit Court for Montgomery County shall be entitled to and receive as a salary the sum of three hundred and sixty dollars per annum, payable in sums of thirty dollars per month, which shall be in full and lieu of the allowances now authorized by law, and the Commissioners of Montgomery County are authorized and directed at their next meeting for making the county levy, and annually thereafter, to levy on the assessable property in said county for the use of the crier, such sum of money as shall be sufficient for the payment of said salary of said crier.

DAMASCUS.

1890, ch. 575, sec. 1.

169. That the citizens of the town of Damascus, in Montgomery county, be and they are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of the "Commissioners of Damascus," and by that name may sue and be sued and have and use a common seal.

1890, ch. 575, sec. 2.

170. That the corporate limits of said town shall be as follows: Beginning at the north side of the public road leading from Damascus to Etchison at the southeast corner of Levi W. Pearce's lot, and running with the division line between the lands of Levi W. Peace and William H. Bowman, north to the lot of John Lyles; thence with the dividing line between the lands of John Lyles and William H. Bowman to the land of Oliver Watkins; thence west with the dividing line between the lands of John Lyles and Oliver Watkins to the lands of Jason P. Warthen; thence north with the dividing line between the lands of Oliver Watkins and Jason P. Warthen to the lands of N. J. Burdett; thence west with the dividing line