

Ibid. sec. 3.

185. That in all matters and for all purposes the person appearing upon the records of said Montgomery county as the owner, either by the original transaction or as assignee as aforesaid, of such debt or debts, shall be conclusively presumed to be the true and lawful owner of the same.

Ibid. sec. 4.

186. That no release of such deed of trust made and executed by the trustee or trustees named therein, or his or their legal representatives, shall be valid or effectual to release or discharge the lien created by such deed of trust unless the person or persons appearing on the records, as aforesaid, as the owner of the debt or debts secured thereby, or his, her or their legal representative, shall sign and acknowledge such release.

1906, ch. 428, sec. 5.

187. That upon each note or other evidence of debt secured by such deed of trust there shall be endorsed the fact that the same is secured by deed of trust upon real estate in Montgomery county, Maryland.

Ibid. sec. 6.

188. This act shall not affect deeds of trust executed and recorded prior to April 3rd, 1906, or the releases of the same.

Dogs.

1910, ch. 717, sec. 1.

189. That all owners of dogs born before the first of January in each year, in Montgomery county, shall pay to the county an annual tax of one dollar for each male dog and two dollars for each female dog, except keepers of kennels, who shall pay a kennel license of ten dollars per annum for less than twenty-five dogs; between twenty-five and fifty dogs, twenty-five dollars. The dog tax collector shall issue a kennel license, which shall specify the name of the owner, name of kennel and keeper of same, and any dog kept or straying about the premises of any person with his knowledge, whether such person be the owner or only the occupant of said premises, shall be deemed for the purpose of this section the property of said person, and the tax imposed by this section shall be due and payable on the first day of January of each year, and shall be payable within the first thirty days of each year.

Ibid. sec. 2.

190. That it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to provide the constables of the county in their respective districts, with suitable metal tags, having stamped on one side the number thereof and on the other side the year for which they
