

visions of this act shall remain in force until altered or repealed by competent authority. No provisions of this sub-title of this article shall affect any right, lien or liability subsisting on the date of its passage.

1908, ch. 127, sec. 34.

240. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company is required to keep a flagman or signalman stationed during each and every day from seven o'clock A. M. to nine o'clock P. M. in each year at each of the crossings of its railroad over Frederick avenue, over Chestnut street, and over Summit avenue (otherwise known as the Goshen road) in said town to warn persons using said street and crossings over said railroad at said crossings of the approach of trains upon said railroad.

Ibid. sec. 34A.

241. The said Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company shall be liable to pay a fine of $50.00 for each and every day that it shall fail or neglect to comply with the provisions of the preceding section; said fine to be recovered in an action in the name of the State of Maryland before any justice of the peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Montgomery county, and to be paid, when collected, into the road fund of said town, in any such proceedings service of summons upon any ticket agent shall be sufficient service upon said railroad company.

1906, ch. 292, sec. 35.

242. No railroad company whose tracks cross any street or public road in said town shall permit any of its cars to obstruct said street or road for a longer period than five minutes. Any such railroad company violating the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof before any of the justices of the peace of said county, be fined not more than $10 (ten dollars) and costs. In any such proceeding, service of a summons upon any ticket agent shall be a sufficient service upon said railroad company.

Ibid. sec. 37.

243. This sub-title of this article is hereby declared to be a public act, and may be read in evidence in all the courts of this State without proof.

GARRETT PARK.

1898, ch. 453, sec. 1.

244. That the citizens of the town of Garrett Park, in Montgomery county, are hereby created a body corporate by the name and style of Garrett Park, with all the powers and privileges of a body politic and corporate, and by said cor-