

for a term of one year or until their successors are appointed and qualified; and the council shall fix the compensation of each of said officers and all subordinates under them, and shall prescribe their duties as herein provided. The Mayor shall have the power to appoint, with the approval and consent of the council, such deputy marshal or marshals, or deputy health officer or officers, and such assistants as may be necessary for the enforcement of all ordinances of the town relating to the public safety, order, health and cleanliness. All appointed officers of the town shall be under the direct supervision of the Mayor, and shall be held responsible to him for the enforcement of all the ordinances of the town, and it shall be the duty of the Mayor to see that all officers under him shall impartially do their duty as required by law. The clerk shall keep the minutes of the proceedings of the council in a bound book, but with the consent of the council the clerk will be allowed to keep the minutes, if typewritten, in a loose leave journal, but all leaves shall be carefully numbered and preserved, and every sixty days shall be bound in a journal provided for keeping a record of such minutes. The clerk shall collect and receive the taxes and all other money due the town, and shall keep and disburse same in the manner prescribed by the council, and shall perform such other duties as the council may prescribe. The council may allow the marshal and deputy marshal, the health officer and his assistants, and the clerk, such compensation as they may deem proper.

1906, ch. 826, sec. 8.

286. That the Mayor shall have all the powers of a justice of the peace in criminal cases where the town of Glen Echo is a party, and shall receive fees allowed justices of the peace in similar cases, and an appeal from his judgment when the demand or fine exceeds five dollars may be taken to the Circuit Court for the county, which shall hear and determine the matter as upon appeal from justices of the peace.

Ibid. sec. 9.

287. That the marshal and health officer shall attend the meetings of the council when requested and perform such other duties as the council may direct; the marshal shall preserve the peace and good order of the town, and for this purpose he is invested with the power and authority as any constable under the laws of the State.

1906, ch. 826, sec. 10.

288. That the council and all other officers of the corporation shall before they enter upon the duties of their respective