

shall be numbered in order as it is passed, and all repeals or ordinances shall be recorded therein. The council shall also keep a separate book of all licenses and permits granted, and a separate book for all sidewalk tax that is levied, and a separate book for all water rents charged, and a separate account for all fines collected.

1906, ch. 826, sec. 19.

297. That the Mayor shall annually appoint, by and with the consent, advice and approval of the council, one member of the council to audit the account of the treasurer, and the said auditor shall make quarterly audits and report the same to the council with his recommendations.

Ibid. sec. 20.

298. That the Mayor shall keep a criminal docket with index, and shall record all proceedings of cases which come before him for trial.

Ibid. sec. 21.

299. That those parts of the several county roads within the limits of said town are hereby made and declared to be public streets or avenues of said town, and shall be from time to time improved and repaired, as in the discretion of the council the public interest may require and the resources of the town may justify.

Ibid. sec. 22.

301. That this act is hereby declared to be a public act and may be used in evidence in all courts of this State without proof.
