

1900, ch. 661, sec. 109.

307. The male citizens of Hyattstown of the age of twenty-one years and upward who have resided in said town for six months next preceding the election, shall on the first Monday in May annually, elect three male citizens who are voters and have resided in said town for six months next preceding said elections, as commissioners of Hyattstown, to serve for one year, or until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. They shall receive no pay for their services.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 16, sec. 110.

308. The three commissioners shall, at their first meeting after an election, elect one of their number to be president of the board, and all vacancies in the board of commissioners shall be filled by an election held after ten days' notice given by the remaining commissioners.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 16, sec. 111.

309. They shall meet in said town on or before the first Monday in June succeeding their election, and from time to time as occasion may require.

Ibid. sec. 112.

310. They shall annually appoint a clerk, who shall keep the minutes of their proceedings in a well bound book, which shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein, and shall perform such other duties as the commissioners may assign him.

Ibid. sec. 113.

311. They shall annually, on or before the first Monday in April, appoint three judges of election, who shall conduct the election according to the election laws of the State, except that the polls shall be opened at two o'clock P. M., and closed at six o'clock P. M.

Ibid. sec. 114.

312. They may appoint annually a bailiff for said town, who shall perform such duties as may be required of him by said commissioners, and preserve peace and good order in said town; and for that purpose he shall have all the powers of a constable.

Ibid. sec. 115.

313. The commissioners and all other officers of the corporation shall, before they enter upon the duties of their offices, make oath that they will diligently and faithfully, to the best of their skill and judgment perform the duties of their office, and shall file a certificate thereof, signed by the officer before
