

P. L. L. 1888, ch. 103, sec. 122.

320. The commissioners shall not expend or contract to expend in any one year more money than the amount receivable from taxes and other sources for that year.

1890, ch. 236, sec. 123.

321. The county commissioners, justices of the peace, sheriff, constables and all State and county officers shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town as if this charter had not been granted, and the county commissioners of Montgomery County shall, on or before the first day of January in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and on or before the first day of January in each and every year thereafter, pay over to the commissioners of said town that proportion of the entire county levy for the repair of roads which the total real property assessed within the limits of the town of Hyattstown bears to the whole amount of assessed property in Montgomery county, so that the commissioners of Hyattstown may receive and disburse for the repair and maintenance of the streets of said town the amount levied upon the real property within the corporate limits of the town of Hyattstown for the repair of roads by the said County Commissioners of Montgomery County.

JURORS, STATE'S WITNESSES, CRIER AND BAILIFFS.

1892, ch. 418, sec. 124.

322. The County Commissioners of Montgomery County shall annually levy such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses which may be incurred the then succeeding year by the attendance of jurors, State's witnesses, criers and bailiffs of the Circuit Court.

1892, ch. 818, sec. 125.

323. It shall be the duty of the clerk to the county commissioners to pay the certificate of attendance of such jurors, State's witnesses, criers and bailiffs of the Circuit Court when presented to him for payment, and upon his failure to pay any such certificate when so presented by the person to whom the same was issued, said clerk to the county commissioners shall forfeit and pay to every such person for every such failure, the sum of five dollars ($5.00) to be recovered by said party in his own name as other small debts are recovered before a justice of the peace, together with the costs of suit.

Ibid. sec. 126.

324. A certificate signed by the clerk of the Circuit Court, and expressing the number of days any juror, State's witness, crier or bailiff may have attended, and the sum due him for
