

Ibid. sec. 129.

327. Constables of said county, who shall act as bailiffs to the Circuit Court, shall be entitled to one dollar and fifty cents a day.

1888, art. 16, sec. 131.

328. Constables in the said counties shall be entitled to the fees prescribed by law for the particular services rendered by them under the preceding section; and the said justices shall be entitled to charge for their respective services in said criminal cases the following fees: For issuing each State writ, twenty-five cents; for summoning all the witnesses on both sides in any case, fifty cents; for each trial, one dollar; for every commitment, twenty-five cents; for every release, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizances in each case reported to the Circuit Court, twenty-five cents each; for each attachment for contempt, twenty-five cents.

Ibid. sec. 132.

329. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he or she be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of section 337 shall be accounted for and wholly paid without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the county commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county, and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

1910, ch. 294, sec. 1.

330. That the Governor be and he is hereby authorized, empowered and directed by and with the consent of the Senate of the State of Maryland, if in session, and without the consent and approval of the Senate if not in session, to biennially appoint a justice of the peace for Montgomery county at large, and to designate said justice of the peace appointed by the provisions of this act as police justice.

Ibid. sec. 2.

331. That said police justice shall be a resident of the county of Montgomery, in the State of Maryland, and who before he acts as such shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of one thousand dollars, with a surety or securities to be approved by the County Commissioners of
