

CHAPTER 82.

AN ACT to authorize the Mayor and Council of Rockville to convey to Henry Reisinger a part of Commerce lane that has been abandoned in Rockville.

WHEREAS, A portion of Commerce lane in Rockville, lying between the eastern portion of lot numbered forty (40) and Commerce lane as now used, and between said lot numbered forty (40) and Montgomery avenue, has been abandoned for a great many years, and Henry Reisinger is now the owner of that portion of said lot numbered forty (40), which adjoins on the north side abandoned portion of Commerce lane. And,

WHEREAS, Said Commerce lane is unnecessarily wide at that place, and the portion so abandoned is useless to the public.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Mayor and Council of Rockville be and it is hereby authorized and empowered to convey to the said Henry Reisinger for a nominal consideration so much of that portion of the bed of Commerce lane as has been abandoned and is now in the possession of the said Reisinger, as in the judgment of the said Mayor and Council of Rockville may not be needed for public use as a public highway.

Approved April 1, 1912.

CHAPTER 83.

AN ACT concerning the retirement from regular duty of public school teachers in Baltimore county, and providing salaries for teachers retired; providing for a fund out of which said salaries shall be paid; and creating the board of trustees of the Teachers' Retirement Fund of Baltimore County for the management and distribution of such fund, by adding additional sections to Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Baltimore County," as repealed and re-enacted by Chapter 495 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session of nineteen hundred and eight, sub-title "Schools," to follow section 376, and to be known as sections
