

(6) To adequately provide for the maintenance of an efficient police force and fire department;

(7) To light the streets, public squares and reservations;

(8) To compel the owners of property, or tenants, to keep the sidewalks in front of their property clean and in repair;

(9) To impose a tax on dogs, fowls, hogs and other animals running at large, or totally prohibit the same;

(10) To authorize the use of the streets for railroads, operated by electric, steam or other mechanical motive power, and to regulate the same as to grades, crossing, paving between and outside tracks and otherwise; to require and compel all lines of railway in any one street to run on and use one and the same track, and to keep in repair the bridges and crossings through which or over which their cars run;

(11) To prescribe fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violation of their ordinances, including the committal of offenders to the Montgomery county jail, until the same with costs are paid.

1908, ch. 431, sec. 15.

357. They may adopt suitable measures for the removal of sewage and garbage and fix the amount to be paid therefor, which shall be paid by a special tax for that purpose to be imposed on the owners of the respective buildings, and collected from them, and the same shall be a lien on said property and collected as other taxes are collected, and the council may pass suitable ordinance to enable the proper officers to collect and remove all fifth from the town, and provide for the disposal thereof. A special tax may be imposed to carry out the provisions of this section, not exceeding the sum of six dollars per year on any one house, to be paid by the owner thereof as aforesaid.

1904; ch. 65, sec. 16.

358. On or before the first day of June, 1912, and each third year thereafter, the council shall appoint three assessors, freeholders of said town, who shall, under the direction of the said council, make an assessment of all the property real, personal and mixed, in said town, at a fair cash value at public sale, as near as they may be able to determine the same, and the council shall immediately thereupon levy a tax thereon not exceeding thirty-five cents on the hundred dollars' worth of assessable property in any one year, and all taxes so levied shall be a lien on any and all property of the person or persons against whom they may be levied, and any person may appeal from the valuation of the said assessors to the council, which