

220; 1902, Chapter 289; 1904, Chapter 204; 1910, Chapter 240, the council shall annually levy upon the assessable property of said county, a tax sufficient to pay the interest thereon, and the principal of such portions as may mature in each year after the date of their issue, as now levied.

LAYTONSVILLE.

1892, ch. 497, sec. 1.

367. That the citizens of the town of Laytonsville, in Montgomery county, be and they are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of the "Commissioners of Laytonsville," and by that name may sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

Ibid. sec. 2.

368. That the corporate limits of said town shall be as follows: Beginning on the south side of Laytonsville at a point where the Olney road intersects the road leading from Laytonsville to Gaithersburg, thence by a straight line, in a northeasterly direction, through the lands of H. B. Penn, H. Weeks, T. L. Bell, Joseph Simpson and U. H. Griffith to the summit of stone quarry hill on the road leading from Laytonsville to Unity; thence by a straight line in a northwesterly direction, through the lands of U. H. Griffith and W. B. Mobley, to a point on the road leading from Laytonsville to Damascus, marked by a gate just north of the house occupied by B. Taylor; thence by a straight line in a southwesterly direction, through the lands of W. B. Mobley, J. M. Gue and I. G. Warfield to the summit of the hill west of the lane leading to I. G. Warfield's dwelling house on the road leading from Laytonsville to Goshen; thence by a straight line in a southeasterly direction through the lands of G. E. Gaither and E. O. Brown to the place of beginning.

Ibid. sec. 3.

369. That the male citizens of Laytonsville of the age of twenty-one years and upward, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding the election, shall on the first Monday in May, annually elect three freeholders who have resided in said town for six months next preceding said election, as commissioners of Laytonsville, to serve for one year or until their successors shall be elected and qualified. They shall receive no pay for their services.

1892, ch. 497, sec. 4.

370. That the three commissioners shall, at their first meeting after an election, elect one of their number to be president of the board, and all vacancies in the board of commissioners
