

ten o'clock A. M. until three o'clock P. M. until every parcel shall have been offered.

1898, ch. 354, sec. 193C.

499. Whenever it is necessary to sell personal property for the payment of taxes, the bailiff shall seize and take into possession so much of the goods and chattels of the delinquent taxpayer as he may deem necessary to satisfy the taxes in arrear, and make out a schedule of the same, and in the list of delinquent taxpayers it shall be sufficient to describe the same as a lot of personal property assessed to the person named, and the sale thereof shall be made from the schedule made at the time of the seizure thereof; and the title to personal property so sold shall pass to the purchaser at the time of such sale, with the right of redemption at any time within 60 days, provided the former owner shall within said period pay to the purchaser or the person then owning the amount paid therefor, with ten per cent. interest and all costs and expenses incurred.

Ibid. sec. 193D.

500. With respect to any parcel or parcels of land which may be sold under the provisions of the preceding sections, the bailiff shall, within twenty days after the conclusion of said sale or sales, make and file in the Circuit Court for Montgomery County a full report, setting forth his proceedings in the premises in detail, and also showing to whom and at what price the several parcels were sold, the amount of tax, interest and proportional part of the expense of advertising and legal cost in each case, and shall also file with said report as part thereof a copy of the printed list and notice as required in section 498. If upon examination of said report the said court, or any judge thereof, shall be of the opinion that the provisions of law have been complied with substantially, it shall pass an order warning all persons to show cause by a day to be therein named why the said sale or sales should not be finally ratified and confirmed, a copy of which order shall be published in some newspaper printed in the said town of Rockville once in each of three consecutive weeks before the day in said order named. At the expiration of the time limited in said order the court shall in one order ratify and confirm the sales in all cases in which no objections have been filed, and in all cases in which objections have been filed, the court shall proceed to hear and determine the matter in all respects as now provided by law and the rules and practice of the court. And if for any cause the sale of any of said parcels of land shall be set aside, the bailiff shall at once proceed to readvertise the same, and shall sell the same in the manner hereinafter provided.
