

- 314. Election returns and questions arising thereon.
- 315. What ordinances may be passed.
- 316. Assessment of property.
- 317. Tax list.
- 318. Bailiff to collect taxes.
- 319. Fines and forfeitures; how collected.
- 320. Commissioners not to expend more than amount received from taxes.
- 321. County officers to exercise offices in town; road tax to be paid to town.

JURORS, STATE'S WITNESSES, CRIMERS AND BAILIFFS.

- 322. Tax to be levied to pay jurors, State's witnesses, crimers and bailiffs.
- 323. Clerk to County Commissioners to pay certificate and penalty for failure to do so.
- 324. Certificate signed by clerk; authority of clerk.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

- 325. Number of and their districts.
- 326. Summons out of election district of defendant; transmission of papers.
- 327. Constables acting as court bailiffs; pay.
- 328. Fees.
- 329. Fees; by whom paid; fines and forfeitures; no part to go to informer.
- 330. Governor to appoint a police justice.
- 331. Qualifications of police justice; bond.
- 332. Police justice to have his office in court house and attend four days every week from ten to one o'clock.
- 333. Police justice to have same jurisdiction in civil cases as other justices.
- 334. Persons arrested to be taken before police justice: power to amend writ.
- 335. Fees of police justice.
- 336. Report of police justice.
- 337. Jurisdiction over criminal offenses.
- 338. In absence of police justice, court to designate another justice to act; vacancy; how filled.

- 339. Duty of police justice to examine into all charges made against any person.
- 340. Penalties for violation of crimes; no jurisdiction to sentence for felony.
- 341. Other justices of the peace to exercise their jurisdiction except as limited by this act.

KENSINGTON.

- 342. Citizens a body corporate; corporate name; powers; seal.
- 343. Corporate limits of the town.
- 344. Town elections; terms of officers; qualification of electors; Councilmen not to receive any fees.
- 345. Mayor to preside at meetings; who to preside in his absence; vacancies; how filled.
- 346. When and where Council shall meet; quorum.
- 347. Judges of election.
- 348. Town marshal, health officer and clerk to be appointed; deputy marshals; their duty; health officer; his duty; clerk; his duty.
- 349. Mayor to have powers of justice of the peace; appeals from his judgment.
- 350. Marshal and health officer to attend meetings of Council.
- 351. Oath of officers.
- 352. Bond of clerk and treasurer.
- 353. Election returns and appeals.
- 354. Assessors of the town of Kensington; plat of town; building lines; ordinances in general.
- 355. Special assessments.
- 356. General powers.
- 357. Sewage and garbage.
- 358. Assessment of property; appeals from assessment; tax rate; detailed statements to be published.
- 359. Taxes; when due; publication of list of delinquent taxpayers.
- 360. Tax sales.
- 361. Town may purchase at sale.
- 362. Clerk's report of sale; proceedings thereon.
- 363. Property may be redeemed within two years.
- 364. Tax deed.