CHAPTER 797.

AN ACT to pay R. L. Werntz, of Annapolis, Maryland, the sum of eighty dollars and sixty-two cents ($80.62), rent and interest due and owing him for that part of the City Hotel, now Colonial Theatre, used as armory and locker rooms by Companies "G and M" First Regiment Infantry, "M. N. G." as stated in lease, dated May 12th, 1902, between R. L. Werntz and State of Maryland acting through John S. Saunders, Adjutant General.

WHEREAS, By lease filed in the office of the Adjutant General, it will be shown that Companies "G" and "M" First Maryland Regiment Infantry, "M. N. G.," used and occupied dining room, and two adjoining rooms, as also the rear room, with adjoining small room on the south side of main hall of City Hotel, now Colonial Theatre, from the 12th day of May, 1902, to the 12th day of August, 1904, at a yearly rental of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00), to be paid in quarterly instalments of sixty-two dollars and fifty cents ($62.50) each; and,

WHEREAS, By letter of R. L. Werntz filed with said lease it will be shown, that the rent for last quarter, viz, from May 12th, 1904, to August 12th, 1904, has never been paid. Now, therefore,
