

SUB-SEC. 2. Any association which shall show by the annual valuation hereinafter provided for that it is accumulating and maintaining the reserve necessary to enable it to do so, under a table of mortality not lower than the American Experience Table and 4 per cent. interest, may grant to its members extended and paid-up protection or such withdrawal equities as its constitution and laws may provide; provided, that such grants shall in no case exceed in value the portion of the reserve to the credit of such members to whom they are made.

SEC. 6A. (Beneficiaries.) Death benefits shall be payable only to the wife, husband, relative by blood, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, stepfather, stepmother, stepchildren, children by legal adoption, or to a person or persons dependent upon the member; provided, that if after the issuance of the original certificate the member shall become dependent upon an incorporated charitable institution, he shall have the privilege, with the consent of the association to make such institution his beneficiary. Within the above restrictions each member shall have the right to designate his beneficiary and, from time to time, have the same changed in accordance with the laws, rules or regulations of the association, and no beneficiary shall have or obtain any vested interest in the said benefit until the same has become due and payable upon the death of the said member; provided, that any association may, by its laws, limit the scope of beneficiaries within the above classes.

SEC. 7A. (Qualifications for Membership.) Any association may admit to beneficial membership any person not less than sixteen and not more than sixty years of age, who has been examined by a legally qualified physician and whose examination has been supervised and approved in accordance with the laws of the association; provided, that any beneficiary member of such association who shall apply for a certificate providing for disability benefits need not be required to pass an additional medical examination therefor. Nothing herein contained shall prevent such association from accepting general or social members.

SEC. 8A. (Certificate.) Every certificate issued by any such association shall specify the amount of benefit provided thereby, and the certificate, the charter or articles of incorporation, or, if a voluntary association, the articles of association, the constitution and laws of the association and the application for membership and medical examination, signed by the applicant, and all amendments to each thereof, shall constitute the agree-
