

of the said last-mentioned counties of the State, or for any person or voter to take into the polling place or booth any sample or fac simile of the ballot or to use any sample or fac simile of the ballot when marking his ballot or take into the polling place or use when marking his ballot any stencil, ruler, measure or other mechanical device of any material or form as a means of aid, guidance or assistance in marking his ballot. Any violation of any of the foregoing provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in jail for not less than thirty days nor more than one year, in the discretion of the Court.

54. The form and arrangement of the ballots shall be as follows: All ballots shall contain the name of every candidate whose nomination for any office specified in the ballot has been certified to and filed according to the provisions of this article, and not withdrawn in accordance herewith. The names of candidates for every office shall, except in the case of candidates for presidential electors, be arranged alphabetically according to their surnames, under the designation of the office. Above the group of names of the candidates for each office and upon a separate line immediately underneath the designation of office, there shall be printed in bold, plain roman capitals, twelve-point (pica) type, an appropriate direction or instruction to the voter, informing him of the number of persons for whom he may lawfully vote for the particular office mentioned immediately above each such direction, thus: "Vote for One," or "Vote for Two," or "Vote for Six," as the case may be. To the right of the name of each candidate upon the official ballot, and properly separated from said names, and immediately to the left of the square opposite the name of the candidate, and in line therewith, shall be added the designation of the party or principle which the candidate represents, as is duly contained in the certificate of nomination or nomination papers (said designation of the party, however, shall consist solely of the name of the party to be expressed in one word only and nothing more). To the name of each candidate for State office or candidate for Congress shall be added the name of the county or city in which the candidate resides. Ballots shall be so printed as to give each voter a clear opportunity to designate by a cross (X) in a square at the right of the name of each candidate, and at the right of each question, his choice of candidates and his answer to such question.

If the candidate is named for the same office on two or more certificates of nomination, his name shall be printed on the
