

shall, at the request of said State's Attorney, furnish a type-written copy of said notes, or such part thereof as he may require, without charge; provided, however, that such stenographer shall be paid for his traveling expenses. And said stenographer shall not permit any other person to make a copy of any of the notes taken under the provisions of this section, or to read the same, nor shall be disclose the same, or any part thereof, or give any information of any kind relative thereto, to any person whatsoever, save only the grand jury and the State's Attorney, except upon the written order of the Court. And said stenographic notes and any typewritten copy thereof shall be kept in the custody of the State's Attorney, and shall be held by him for the sole use of himself and the grand jury until disposed of upon the written order of the Court.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That any stenographer appointed under the provisions of the preceding sections shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe before the clerk of the Circuit Court for Harford County an oath that he will keep secret all matters and things occurring before such grand juries.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That any stenographer so appointed as aforesaid who shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding sections with regard to secrecy, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding $1,000 or imprisoned in jail exceeding one year, or be both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the Court.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1912.

CHAPTER 130.

AN ACT to authorize constables of Harford county to execute commitments from the justice of the peace of said county committing persons to the House of Correction and other State institutions, and prescribing the fees for such service; and to allow said constables mileage and necessary traveling expenses in serving State warrants, and fees for their attendance before justices of the peace of the county at the hearing or trial of the prisoners.
