

and distinctly separated by appropriate lines from the name or names of such qualified candidates and in plainly legible type the words "For An Uninstructed Delegation," and to the right thereof a square for the cross-mark of the voter in the same manner and relative location as the square for the cross-mark is printed to the right of the name of any candidate upon the primary election ballots as in this sub-title provided, so that such voters of the party who wish to vote for an uninstructed delegation to the national convention of their party may do so; and if it shall appear upon the count and canvass of the votes cast in said primary elections that a greater number of votes have been cast in such primary election in any county of the State or legislative district of Baltimore City in favor of an uninstructed delegation than for any candidate in said primary for the nomination for president, the Supervisors of Elections and board of canvassers for such county or legislative district shall so certify, and the delegation from each county or legislative district in the State convention of the party shall vote in such State convention for an uninstructed delegation to the national convention as long as in their conscientious judgment it shall appear to them that there is any possibility of a majority of the members of such State convention voting for an uninstructed delegation; and if it shall so appear to any such delegation that there is no such possibility, they shall vote in their discretion for instructions upon the part of the State convention for such person for the candidate of their party for president as they may deem wisest.

Any vacancy which may exist in the delegation of any of such parties to any such national convention shall be filled in the manner prescribed by section 160K with respect to the filling of vacancies.

160B. Said primary elections by the political parties aforesaid shall be annually held throughout this State, including Baltimore City, on a day to be fixed by an agreement between the governing bodies of said parties for the State not earlier than the eighth day of September not later than the fifteenth day of September of and in each and every year, except in those years in which there shall be an election of a President and Vice-President of the United States, in which said presidential years the said primaries, including primaries for nominating candidates for Congress, delegates from the several counties and legislative districts of Baltimore City to the State Convention, and all candidates to be elected at the presidential elections, other than delegates to National Conventions and presidential electors (which said delegates and electors shall
